

Metal Detector

Model:

MD-4520

Inline metal detection that complies with HACCP

Easy to Use Membrane
Touch Screen

Plastic Intralox Belting

*Model MD-4520 Shown with optional pusher reject and stack light.

The Hawk Series of Metal Detectors is designed for easy integration into food production lines. Superior levels of metal detection sensitivity are attained using multi-frequency sensor engine technology. With the "Auto Learn" feature the Hawk Series are easy to set up and operate with the lowest cost of ownership.

Standard Features Include:

- #304 Stainless Steel Frame Construction
- 20 Program Memory
- Multi-frequency Sensor Technology
- Plastic Intralox Type Belt
- Superior Metal Detection on FE, Non-FE and S.S.
- Complies with HACCP Safety Requirements

Available Sizes:

- Widths: 12" - 24"
- Heights: 4" - 14"

Electrical:

- 220 Volt, 1 Phase, 10 AMP
- 3 CFM @ 80 psi

Air:

- Only Required if Reject Option is Ordered

*Model MD-4520 Shown with optional pusher reject and stack light.

← *Plexiglass Safety Cover only provided if optional pusher reject is ordered.

Many Metal Detector aperture widths and heights are available depending on your product size, consult your sales professional to recommend the correct size for your specific application.

Available Options:

2 Position Stack Light Tower

Green: ON
Red: Reject

Beacon light also available.

Variable Speed Drive

Allows for matching an existing line speed.

Pusher Reject

Designed for heavier packages.

Solid White FDA Food Grade Belt

Air Blast Reject

Designed for lighter weight packages.

Lockable Reject Bin

Ensures contaminated products won't end up on the product line again.